Story

I help out the weak
and take down the strong!
I'm Goemon Ishikawa,

the greatest thief under the sun! I take money from the corrupt nobles and give it back to the poor! But hey, even I make mistakes... like this last little slip-up that got me taken in by some bumbling cops! They took me all the way to Higo in Kyushu and stuffed me into a prison cell. Pretty pathetic of me, yeah... but I knew that busting out of this sorry excuse for a prison would be a cinch. I was enjoying some me-time in here, getting some shut-eye, when some guy had the nerve to come waltzing in to tap me out of a nice nap. I rolled over, muttering "What, what!?" and to my surprise, I saw that rat-burglar... Ebisumaru!

I was even more surprised when I heard what he had to say. He told me that the lord of the Mechanical Castle had hidden away some treasure. He must have been arrested when he went in there to steal it. Now I couldn't just sit around in a cell after hearing about the treasure of the Mechanical Castle. I'm busting out of this cell and getting to work, MY work, the work of the greatest Goemon under the sun! Bring it on!

The Rules of the Game

Your goal is to head on a journey through Japan in Mechanical Castle, and claim the treasure inside!

- 1. You'll need to obtain three passes to get through
- 2. Jump over bottles and coin purses to pull out
- 3. Buy stuff in the shops to power up.
- 4. You can play as two-players! Player one will be Goemon, and player two will be Ebisumaru. You can go

search of the their contents.

be Goemon, and for it together!

Aim for the Mechanical Castle!

Goemon's journey is just beginning.
